

Expected Educational Results

Upon completing the requirements for the doctor of chiropractic degree at Sherman College of Chiropractic, the student will be expected to:

1. Integrate the philosophical principles of chiropractic into the care of patients, (Institutional Goals C2 and C8), (Clinical Competencies f,g,j)
2. Demonstrate an understanding of human physiology, health assessment and wellness promotion, and their relationship to the science of chiropractic, (Institutional Goals C4 and C6), (Clinical Competencies a,b,c,d,e,f,g,h,i,j,k,l,m,n,o)
3. Integrate the knowledge acquired in the didactic program in the safe and effective practice of chiropractic into practical application in the care of patients, (Institutional Goal C7), (Clinical Competencies a,b,c,d,e,f,g,h,i,j,k,l,m,n,o)
4. Communicate the objectives of chiropractic care in both written and verbal form, (Institutional Goals C2 and C8), (Clinical Competencies m)
5. Demonstrate an inculcation of ethical values and a recognition of his/her responsibility to serve the patient as a primary health care provider, (Institutional Goal C9), (Clinical Competencies o)