SECURITY REGULATIONS FOR ANIMAL CONTROL

POLICY

County Ordinances

County law requires that all pets be kept under restraint and that all pets must have a current inoculation against rabies. Pets are not allowed to run at large; chase people or vehicles; trespass; destroy, damage, soil, defile or defecate on property of another person or legal entity.

County Ordinances forbid any animals from entering or being brought into any building except for service animals.

Sherman College Security Regulations

1. All pets must be always kept under restraint.
2. No pet may be left unattended at any time.
3. No animals except service animals may be brought into any building at any time for any reason.
4. The owner must remove all pet droppings.

Violations of the regulations may result in fines or referrals to county animal control officers.

Fines

1. If the owner does not remove their pet's droppings, they will be liable for a $50.00 littering fine.
2. If an animal is unrestrained or unattended the owner will be liable for a $15.00 fine.

Repeated offenses will be referred to the county animal control office.
