RESEARCH TIME

POLICY

Release time to conduct research or scholarly activity will be made available for faculty members who have received external support which includes salary support for their project or, on a more limited basis, for faculty supported internally . Research proposals intended for research release time or other college funding above regular salary are to be approved by the respective dean.