GRANTS AND CONTRACTS

POLICY

The Research Department shall seek Grants and Contracts from outside sources. Grantors and Contractees may not use the Sherman name in any advertisement programs as endorser of any product or technique. However, any material placed in the public domain by publication may be quoted so long as appropriate credit and citation is provided. It may be announced that such work was done at Sherman College only after such data has been published.