

Support the Sherman Pride Student Emergency Fund

Aimed at supporting students facing financial difficulties, the Sherman Pride Student Emergency Fund allows us to help with their most crucial needs.

Many Sherman College supporters have asked how they can help students. Our assistance is vital to show our students we are responsive to their most crucial needs in this unprecedented era.

Supporting the Sherman Pride Student Emergency Fund shows our students that the Sherman College family will remain strong and rise up when help is needed. Whether their concerns are food, unexpected utility bills, child care needs, clinic supplies or essential school supplies, your gift will provide students with emergency aid to ease their financial burdens and uncertainty. Here's how it works:

- Funds are available as donations are received
- Students must apply with specific needs
- The scholarship committee will make fund award decisions based on funds available
- No obligation of repayment
- Granted once per year as funds are available
