 - i. Presentation outlines MUST be done by the speaker, not event organizers.
 - ii. Presentation Outline MUST be in an hour-by-hour format
 - iii. If any editing needs to be done to these documents to meet state requests the event organizers can choose to do so themselves, or employ Sherman College to do so on their behalf. If they choose to do so themselves Sherman College is not responsible for any application deadlines missed.

- c. The department of continuing education will be available to service the co-sponsor as they go through this process. This includes current information on different state deadlines, time estimates, state suggestions based on location, etc.
 - d. If the requested documents are submitted past the deadlines outlined in the coordination agreement, a late fee of $100 will be assessed.
 - e. The department of continuing education will be unable to submit applications for seminars if not received at least three business days before the requested state deadline.
